THE CHAMPION NEWS

By Wilda Moses

Champion's birthday extravaganza celebrating Betty Henson, Dolly Parton and J.C. Owsley drew friends from far and wide. Ethel Leach furnished the fabulous chocolate cake again; Kaitlyn McConnell brought her Apple Crumble pie to join other pies and cookies and snacks making the long, sweet table just part of the sweetness of the Saturday mid-day out on the bright side!

Good wishes and expressions of appreciation for the good humor and hard work required to keep our precious community hub spinning arose from near fifty friends and neighbors gathering to sing that song.

More birthdays to celebrate are those of Skyline sixth grader Paxton Elgie and the amazing Brenda Massey on Jan. 22. Eighth grader Blake McIntosh has the 24th for his big day and the 25th will be celebrated worldwide in honor of Robert Burns. Joyce Coonts will party on the 26th and Skyline alum Kay Alexander will enjoy the 27th. Dax Loveless is a prekindergarten student at Skyline with a birthday on January 28th. We remember Dwane Collins on the 29th. The 30th is the big day for dairy farmer James Brixey who was reported to have been 40 in 2012. The 30th is also party time for the lovely Loneda Bennett. We wish you Champion birthday extravaganzas one and all.

Karen Ross joined the fun in Champion Saturday remembering the 10 years she carried the mail to us here on her 122-mile route, always carrying dog treats for our friendly canines. She retired at the end of the year with 26 years of service on her three different routes for the post office. Kirt Dooms had been her postmaster in Norwood. She enjoyed seeing him and Judy at her retirement party on Jan. 3. She said her first postmaster was also there to welcome her to retirement. Hopes are that she will have time meander back this way often, though retirement often marks the start of really getting busy. Her friends here will just count ourselves lucky when we see here coming.

Football fans enjoying the weekend games get to hear the National Anthem performed by a variety of talented people.

One Old Champion who has been hearing that song often in his eighty-plus years says that none of them lately have done nearly as good a job as David Richardson—a genuine local talent often visiting in Champion—Looking on the bright side!
